

Meet Coach Nicole!

Nicole Hogg Nicole has trained in all styles of dance since she was three years old. Growing up in the Bay Area, she attended Dance Academy USA and later The Dance Company of San Francisco, under the direction of Chris Jacobsen and Sonya Tayeh. She worked with instructors such as Joey Tarwater, Brooke Pierotti, Tina D'amato-Sidoni, and Mark Meismer. Recently she performed for Matthew Tseng in the Debbie Reynolds showcase and Sonya Tayeh in the Monsters of Hip Hop showcase. Nicole completed her BA in Dance from California State University, Long Beach. In addition to her work here at Studio Fusion, Nicole teaches dance and movement at the Orange County High School of the Performing Arts, The Music Room, and at Pure Barre in Newport Beach. Nicole's choreography is gripping, athletic and always a great deal of fun for her students. Her classes will push you to explore and break through your limits.

Meet Coach Alexa!

Alexa was born and raised in Northern New Jersey. She began training in dance at a very early age and studied at prestigious dance schools in New York City, such as Broadway Dance Center and STEPS NYC. She moved to SOCAL in the middle of 10th grade and attended the Orange County School of the Arts. At OCSA she trained in the commercial dance conservatory, while also continuing to take additional classes at EDGE & Movement Lifestyle studios in Los Angeles. She went on to study at Loyola Marymount University as a dance major. Alexa has traveled the world as Erica Sobol's main assistant. She has also had the great privilege to work closely with members of the Forsythe Company (Tilman O'Donnell), Kidd Pivot (Jiri Pokorny), Batsheva Dance Company (Adi Salant), Hofesh Shecter Company (Maeva Berthelot), and Nederlands Dans Theatre (Ivan Perez, & Medhi Walerski). Alexa also teaches and choreographs throughout southern and northern California. Alexa's style focuses on full body movement and quick dynamic changes. Alongside her dance career, Alexa is also a 200 Hour Certified yoga instructor. Her goal is to connect individually with each student to insure growth, positive learning experiences and a continual love of dance.
